

I am opposed to FCC plans to lift the cross-ownership ban, which would allow further consolidation of our major sources of news. Already, the quality of the most prevalent news sources in the US is seriously compromised by the economic requirement to put profit before integrity. Already, the information and ideologies that are broadcast by the mainstream media are distressingly uniform. Allowing one corporation to have control over several major media sources in a given area is not in the public interest.

Thank you for your attention to these comments.